

THE GLASGOW SCHOOL OF ART

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR FUTURE SKILLS AT THE GLASGOW SCHOOL OF ART

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2016, UK GDPR

Background and Purpose

The Glasgow School of Art is a higher education institution and a registered Charity SC012490. This privacy notice explains how Future Skills at The Glasgow School of Art collects, manages and uses your personal data to support the core activities of the School and how we use and maintain the security of that personal data. The Glasgow School of Art is the data controller.

The legal basis for processing your personal data

Future Skills at GSA processes and retains personal data relating to applicants and students in pursuit of our legitimate interest in communicating with you as part of your application to study with Future Skills at The Glasgow School of Art.

Our Privacy Statement should be read in conjunction with the GSA's overarching Privacy Statement for Students issued by our Academic Registry.

Where your personal data comes from

The personal data Future Skills hold is obtained directly from you:

- By registering and enrolling for a Future Skills course through the website you consent to the collection, storage, use and transfer of your personal data by us in accordance with the terms of this privacy notice.

The personal data we retain

We may hold the following types of personal data about you:

- Full Name, Email address and Post Code
- Bank account details for purposes of payment

The following is collected and sent to the Scottish Funding Council (SFC) and after registration and is anonymized:

- Post code
- Age
- Gender
- Race/Ethnicity
- Employment details
- Care experienced
- Disability

Please visit SFC's Privacy Notice on how they process users' data.

How we use your personal data

We will only use your personal data for the:

- processing your application
- enrolling you as a student
- undertaking our contract with you to deliver a programme of study
- provision of any grant funding or a bursary
- supply you with the news and information which you have requested
- to invite you to events and happenings that might be of interest to you
- to promote the work of our students, staff and alumni
- tracking student progression for statistical and reporting purposes

We only retain your personal data for a period for 1 year or a maximum of 3 years, or as long as you continue to engage with us as a student.

Security of your personal data

We are highly conscious of the importance of managing securely the personal data that we retain, and all personal data is processed in accordance with data protection legislation – the requirements of which are regularly reviewed. Your personal data is held safely on a securely accessed system to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing, loss, destruction or damage of the personal data.

Your personal data will not be “sold” or disclosed to any external organisations or third parties. Where your personal data is processed through a third party such as enrolment information, GSA remains the data controller and ensures that such organisations are also GDPR compliant. Any detail retained on those under 18 years of age is also encrypted.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your personal data transmitted online or through the website. Any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your personal data, we use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

Your preferences

We will endeavour to ensure that any personal data we hold is up-to-date, reasonable and not excessive. You have the right to:

- be informed how we use or intend to use your data
- request a copy of any of your personal data we hold
- update your information
- manage your communications preferences
- ask us to remove your data from our records

If you wish to do any of the above, you may contact us at any time at:

Future Skills
The Glasgow School of Art
167 Renfrew Street
Glasgow G3 6RQ
0141 353 4596
futureskills@gsa.ac.uk

Contact details

If you have any questions relating to this privacy notice or issues about the way GSA is planning to use your personal data, please contact Amanda Joykin in the first instance - a.joykin@gsa.ac.uk.

You have the right to lodge a complaint against GSA regarding data protection issues with the Information Commissioner's Office (<https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>).

GSA's Data Protection Officer is Tom McDonnell - DataProtection@gsa.ac.uk.